ПАРАФІЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ЄВХАРИСТІЇ

19 July 2015

8th Sunday after Pentecost

19 ЛИПНЯ 2015 р.

While we were sleeping... Summer is a season when we want to make time to refresh ourselves by relaxing and occasionally “getting away from it all” with family and friends or just on our own. However, if we go away, we still take precautions to secure our home is secure and that someone is keeping a vigilant eye open that everything is safe so that we are not robbed of what is most precious to us (Matt. 24:43). This summer, as we relax, we can also find time to pray and act regarding important moral and social matters. Earlier this year, when our country’s Supreme Court thrust euthanasia upon Canada – which many predicted long ago would be the next step after we became complacent enough about abortion – the president of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops reiterated our fundamental position toward the question. In his statement, Archbishop Paul-André Durocher said, “Catholics are called by their faith to assist all those in need, particularly the poor, the suffering and the dying. Comforting the dying and accompanying them in love and solidarity has been considered by the Church since its beginning a principal expression of Christian mercy. Helping someone commit suicide, however, is neither an act of justice or mercy, nor is it part of palliative care. The decision of the Supreme Court of Canada today does not change Catholic teaching. “[A]n act or omission which, of itself or by intention, causes death in order to eliminate suffering constitutes a murder gravely contrary to the dignity of the human person and to the respect due to the living God, our Creator.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2277). The Bishops of our country invite Canadians, especially Catholics, to do all they can to bring comfort and support for all those who are dying and for their loved ones, so that no one, because of loneliness, vulnerability, loss of autonomy, or fear of pain and suffering, feels they have no choice but to commit suicide. The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops will continue to promote palliative and home care, and to encourage all the faithful to work for the betterment of the elderly, the disabled, the ill, and those who are socially isolated.” He concluded by calling on our government agencies to develop palliative care and many other humane alternatives. In the end, he stated the simple truth that we as Catholics, especially health-care workers, “will not and cannot accept suicide as a medical solution to pain and suffering”.

We need to pray about this and talk about what our personal and collective solution will be. We need to encourage our MPs, MLAs and local healthcare facilities to vote and/or do the right thing. If we spend some time in prayer and, say, make the effort to send an email to OUR elected representatives... that hotdog and watermelon with family and friends will taste so much better.

Mary Magdalen

She is called "the Penitent". St. Mary was given the name 'Magdalen' because, though a Jewish girl, she lived in a Gentile town called Magdala, in northern Galilee, and her culture and manners were those of a Gentile. St. Luke records that she was a notorious sinner, and had seven devils removed from her.

She was present at Our Lords' Crucifixion, and with Joanna and Mary, the mother of James and Salome, at Jesus' empty tomb. Fourteen years after Our Lord's death, St. Mary was put in a boat by the Jews without sails or oars - along with Sts. Lazarus and Martha, St. Maximin (who baptized her), St. Sidonius ("the manborn blind"), her maid Sera, and the body of St. Anne, the mother of the Blessed Virgin. They were sent drifting out to sea and landed on the shores of Southern France, where St. Mary spent the rest of her life as a contemplative in a cave known as Sainte-Baume. She was given the Holy Eucharist daily by angels as her only food, and died when she was 72. St. Mary was transported miraculously, just before she died, to the chapel of St. Maximin, where she received the last sacraments.

More about this saint: St. Mary Magdalen (Feast day - July 22) Mary Magdalen was well known as a sinner when she first saw Our Lord. She was very beautiful and very proud, but after she met Jesus, she felt great sorrow for her evil life. When Jesus went to supper at the home of a rich man named Simon, Mary came to weep at His feet. Then with her long beautiful hair, she wiped His feet dry and anointed them with expensive perfume. Some people were surprised that Jesus let such a sinner touch Him, but Our Lord could see into Mary's heart, and He said: "Many sins are forgiven her, because she has loved very much." Then to Mary He said kindly, "Your faith has made you safe; go in peace." From then on, with the other holy women, Mary humbly served Jesus and His Apostles. When Our Lord was crucified, she was there at the foot of His cross, unafraid for herself, and thinking only of His sufferings. No wonder Jesus said of her: "She has loved much." After Jesus' body had been placed in the tomb, Mary went to anoint it with spices early Easter Sunday morning. Not finding the Sacred Body, she began to weep, and seeing someone whom she thought was the gardener, she asked him if he knew where the Body of her beloved Master had been taken. But then the person spoke in a voice she knew so well: "Mary!" It was Jesus, risen from the dead! He had chosen to show Himself first to Mary Magdalen, the repentant sinner.

Today the Church celebrates the Dormition ("Falling Asleep," or death) of St. Anne, the Mother of the Theotokos. In this feast, we turn once again to the family of Jesus Christ, and remember that we too are a part of that family. We are of the family of Jesus Christ, that is, we are of the family of God.

This means we are called to act like we are members of that family. In the Gospel reading which the Byzantine liturgical tradition gives for this feast (Luke 8:16-21), we learn what this means. Like Jesus' immediate family, we are called to do the will of God. And this will is to love - to love God our Father, and to love our neighbor as ourselves, because in Christ we are united with our neighbor in the one human family.

Let us not misinterpret this text, as some people do. We must not forget that this text tells us something about Jesus' immediate family. If we believe Him to tell the truth when He speaks, then we must believe that His Family, that is his Mother (the Theotokos), and his step-brothers followed God's word. We should not see this text as if Jesus were rejecting His family; instead, He is asking us to follow their example. Indeed, Jesus is able to use a literal truth for our own spiritual gain: His family serves as our example as to what it means to be His disciple. The Theotokos, above all, is the example of human piety, of the one who fully said yes to God. St. James is known by Jews and Christians alike as the righteous because he too followed through with a yes to God's call in his life. The Epistle we have in his name shows us the love we are to have: it is the love which calls sinners back into the family of God: "My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins" (James 5:19-20).

Attention Parishioners:

One of our parishioners has fallen ill and had to be taken by ambulance to the hospital, this family has no added medical insurance and the cost of the ambulance is beyond their means. We are asking the generous parishioners of Holy Eucharist to please donate toward the cost of this expense. You can leave your donations at the Parish office or you can print "ambulance donation" on any envelope and drop it on the collection plate on Sundays. Let us all work together to help our brother and sister out! Thank you in advance.
