ПАРАФІЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ЄВХАРИСТІЇ

15th Sunday after Pentecost

SO WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO?

One thing that I always find fascinating is old newspapers, magazines and other records. They can tell you a lot about what life was like “back then”. Even the pictures of what the streets and homes looked like and the way people dressed tell you a lot about the attitude and mentality of the day. These publications tell you something about how much things have changed and how little they have changed. One of our parishioners lent me two old parish books that I hadn’t seen before. One was the parish picture book from 1943 in the middle of the War and the other was from the 70s. “Fascinating” isn’t the word! One got a glimpse of our parish when young parishioners were going off to serve in the military. The churches – the old and new – looked so different back then. A lot of the faces are no longer around. Yet some are! And you are looking much the same today as in yesteryear!

I’m telling you there is something about this parish and longevity! How many of our octogenarians and nonagenarians are still driving around, attending the Divine Liturgy regularly, even daily, hitting the coffee shops and taking care of business! One thing I did notice in the pages of faces; couples, individuals, families together was that there were a lot of young people! Don’t get me wrong, there are young families in our parish today and we are pleased that they make Holy Eucharist their home parish. But there were a lot of children and youth then that today would be married with families of their own. I couldn’t help but think, “can you imagine how much more active our parish would be, if they were all here today!?” I started wondering, where are they? Sure, some got married and moved to other parts of the city and even to other cities. Hopefully they are living their Catholic lives somewhere in another parish. But what if some of them just drifted away for some reason or other and are still here in the city and even in the neighbourhood and just don’t come around? If so, why not? That’s an important question.

It might be the secularization, the growing influence of the popular culture that tells us that we don’t need Church and we start to buy into it. It could be that we were hurt in some way or scandalized, because it seemed that people in the church were no better, or seemingly worse, than other people. Maybe we just slept in one Sunday too many and talked ourselves into not coming again. Maybe we feel that our parents turned us off or the priest. Maybe we got mixed up with a life that wasn’t right and now we feel we are hopeless and there is no longer a place in the Church for us. Maybe we feel it is just too late now, etc.

Well it is never too late and there is no better time than the present to get back. But what will it take? Well, they say that many, many people would join the Church or come back if only someone would ask them to. But no one does... year after year. What about us who should be doing the asking or the inviting? Maybe now is the opportune time to ask our children and grandchildren and friends if they would like to come or come back and see what can be built from here on. We are living in a society that is less and less family or marriage friendly. The parish church has always been a stable place for Catholic Christians to socialize, worship and grow together. But, of course, it requires an effort on everyone’s part and it requires everyone keeping the real vision of a Vibrant Parish in focus. It requires a bit of sacrifice and kindness. It means that we can never forget that the Parish is Christ really present among His people and a haven for each and every one of us, where everyone is welcome and everyone’s effort is needed if we are going to grow. Father Michael

The Feast of the Nativity of Our Most Holy Lady, the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary is celebrated on September 8 each year. The Feast commemorates the birth of the Mother of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

The birth and early life of the Virgin Mary is not recorded in the Gospels or other books of the New Testament, however this information can be found in a work dating from the second century known as the Book of James or Protevangelion. According to the story found in this book, Mary's parents, Joachim and Anna, were childless for many years. They remained faithful to God, but their prayers for a child were unanswered. One day, when Joachim came to the temple to make an offering, he was turned away by the High Priest who chastised him for his lack of children. To hide his shame, Joachim retreated to the hill country to live among the shepherds and their flocks. As Joachim was praying, his wife Anna was praying at the same time at their house in Jerusalem. An angel appeared to both of them and announced that Anna would have a child whose name would be known throughout the world. Anna promised to offer her child as a gift to the Lord. Joachim returned home, and in due time Anna bore a daughter, Mary.

10:00 AM	Shirley Skochylas Bernice Hrehirchuk	September 1, 2015 Pope Francis’ remarks at the General Audience. Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the family, today we reflect on the importance of devoting time to prayer. We all know how important prayer is, yet it seems so difficult to find time for it. Perhaps we need to ask if we truly love God, as he asks us to, with all our heart, and all our mind and all our strength. For the heart of prayer is the love of God, the source of our life, who constantly “caresses” us with his own love. A heart filled with the love of God can make even a silent thought or a small gesture of devotion a moment of prayer. The Holy Spirit teaches us to pray, to call God our Father, and to grow daily in his love. Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome. I greet the English-speaking pilgrims and visitors taking part in today’s Audience, including those from England, Denmark, Malta, China, Dubai, Nigeria, Canada and the United States of America. Upon all of you, and your families, I invoke an abundance of joy and peace in the Lord Jesus. God bless you all!
