HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

ПАРАФІЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ЄВХАРИСТІЇ

1 November 2015

Feast of Christ the KING!

1 ЛистопадаAttention

The prayers and best wishes of everyone at Holy Eucharist Parish go with our Deacon Patrick Fiman as he travels to join a Byzantine monastic community in the U.S. Finally, all the documentation has come through and Deacon Patrick will be leaving this week. We are grateful for all he has done in our parish. He has not only served at Sunday Divine Liturgies, but thanks to him, we have had weekly Vespers, even Matins on some occasions. He has conducted the adult Faith discussion and, especially, he has done many pastoral visits to the sick and shut-ins! God bless you Deacon Patrick! Whenever you make a visit back home, we will be happy to see you at our parish!

Today we commemorate two great leaders of the Church who both died on this date. The Venerable Metropolitan Andrew Sheptytsky died on Nov. 1, 1944 toward the end of WWII and at the beginning of the communist reign of terror in Western Ukraine. What followed was almost a half century of merciless persecution of the Ukrainian Catholic Church. However, Metropolitan Andrew foresaw this and had prepared the people spiritually to keep the faith. Blessed Theodore Romzha was the Bishop in the Carpathian Mountain region in Ukraine. The KGB arranged a car accident to kill him. One report says that they swung around and tried a couple of times to get the job done. He barely survived, but was then poisoned in the hospital Nov. 1, 1947.
