24th Sunday - Archangel Michael

8 Листопада 2015 р

The 'Synaxis' Feast of Archangel Michael and all Angels.

Today as we celebrate the presence of Angels in our lives, we take this opportunity to reflect on who the Angels are and their significance in our daily lives. "Christ, our Passover" the Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church (nos. 114-117) tells us that Angels are bodiless beings, i.e. spirits. They came into existence by the Will of God and partake of the glory of God and are like lamps that reflect the light of God. They give unceasing glory to God and serve as His messengers. Angels are sometimes classed in "choirs" such as mentioned in the anaphora of the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil: Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Powers and Seraphim and the Cherubim. The Bible reveals the names of some of the Angels, like Michael, Raphael and Gabriel. The Church teaches that each of us is given a 'guardian angel' to guide and protect us through life - leading us safely to salvation!
