HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

ПАРАФІЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ЄВХАРИСТІЇ

20 December 2015

Sunday before Christmas, the Holy Fathers

20 Грудня 2015 р

Today at the Blessed Vasyli' Shrine, Metropolitan Lawrence opens a

SECOND HOLY DOOR within our Archeparchy. That makes at least 4 Holy Doors in Winnipeg for this wonderful Jubilee Year of Mercy. A Jubilee Year is a practice from ancient Biblical times that has been renewed in recent centuries by the Catholic Church with a new spiritual meaning. A Jubilee Year has always meant a forgiveness of debts and due punishments and a restoration of all that was yours but you may have lost for one reason or another. Well, our Catholic Jubilee Year is also one of restoration of the lost treasure of God-given GRACE and strength. It is a restoration of the relationship that we should have with our Lord. We can achieve this restoration/renewal and healing for ourselves by fulfilling certain signs that show we understand and want it! The signs are actions that involve making a little pilgrimage to one of the Holy Doors and passing through it. Another required action is making a good Confession and worthily receiving Holy Communion. Then there are some prayers: The Creed, and a prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father Pope Francis (which traditionally have been the Our Father, a Hail Mary and a Glory be). And making a brief meditation on the theme of Mercy. Other than passing through a Holy Door, we can also choose to perform at least one of the 14 Acts of Mercy. We can achieve this daily. What for? For souls in purgatory - esp. loved ones - who in turn will pray for us until we meet again. Let us boldly take on this total renewal!

Deacon Nicholas Kohuch has reposed in the Lord. November 17, 2015.
Deacon Nicholas was born on 30 May 1926 and was ordained to the Diaconate 27 June 1982. He served in a number of parishes, including Holy Eucharist and Blessed Virgin Mary in Winnipeg, and assisted various priests over the years. Funeral arrangements to be announced.
Вічна йому Пам’ять!

The UCWLC Charity Committee would like to thank the parishioners and their families for donating winter outerwear and other items for Ukraine! The donations went to orphanages, street children, youth , adults, senior homes, camps for displaced people and to military hospitals. Also a huge thanks to the Holy Eucharist Women’s League for donating $1800.00 towards shipping the items to Ukraine. Thank you for helping the people of Ukraine! UCWLC-Charity Committee
