Sunday of the Prodigal Son - Блудний Син

24 Січня 2016 р

FORGIVENESS ПРОЩЕННЯ KAPATAWARAN مغفرة PERDONO

The Sunday of the Prodigal Son which draws us even closer to the Great Fast (which is now only three weeks away) is all about... forgiveness, plain and simple. The Lord offers this parable as an example of the amazing love of God for each and everyone of us and as an example of how we need to forgive one another. The son, i.e. the younger brother, was arrogant, disrespectful, hurtful and foolish. Yes, he was a jerk. He went on to lose every thing, not only by recklessness, but in an immoral and shameful way. He deserved nothing but derision and admonishment. To his credit, he fully understood that and hoped for absolutely nothing more than that, except a drop of mercy so that he would not die in his sin of starvation. His father and others could have said "you are simply getting what you deserve" "you made your bed, now lie in it!". But the father showed how to chose the way of God. He chose the new Way, the Gospel. He forgave and rather celebrated the return of the one who went wayward. The father called upon the indignant brother to forgive and see the bigger picture that the prodigal did not die in his sin, but repented and wanted to live. Come on, let's do the same. The Father asks this...
