ICONS - VALENTINE CARDS TO AND FROM HEAVEN

Today two important days for us coincide: The "Sunday of Orthodoxy" when we celebrate the veneration of icons, and... St. Valentine's Day. The two celebrations actually compliment each other very well. From school days we all love to receive a valentine card and give one (or many), because it is a sign that someone is thinking about us and loves us (or at least kind of likes us) and a sign that we feel the same about others. Icons are much the same. We paint ("write") them because we think that Jesus, Mary or the Saints that they depict are really awesome and worthy of our imitation and love. We want these reminders of them to be around us always - in church, our homes and cars. However, Icons are also a 'Valentine' from the one they depict, because the Lord loves us 100% 24/7 as do His Mother and all of the Saints and Angels. They are always concerned about us, showing their love by showering us with grace or interceding for us - until that day when we are called to join them in the presence of God forever.

Happy Valentine Day! Happy Icon Day!

February 19th—RISEN (The Movie) RISEN is the epic Biblical story of the Resurrection and the weeks that followed, as seen through the eyes of an unbelieving Clavius (Joseph Fiennes), a high-ranking Roman Military Tribune. Clavius and his aide Lucius (Tom Felton) are instructed by Pontius Pilate to ensure Jesus’ radical followers don’t steal his body and claim resurrection. When the body goes missing within days, Clavius sets out on a mission to locate the missing body in order to disprove the rumors of a risen Messiah and prevent an uprising in Jerusalem.
