3rd Sunday of LENT - Veneration of the HOLY CROSS

28 Лютий 2016 р

"When I behold the wondrous Cross"

An American preacher once observed that when Christians in a country start to lose their place—either because of persecution or because they lose the sense of their Faith—this is manifested in the Cross. How so? Well, we start to see either a "Christ-less" Cross or a "Cross-less" Christ. In countries like the Soviet Union the Cross was tolerated, often because it was already part of the architecture. However, to promote the Christ Who made the Cross a famous, eternal symbol by dying on it for the sake of our salvation — was forbidden and ridiculed. While in western countries where we fear that aspect of our Faith that says that sharing in the suffering of Christ is part of our salvation journey, we sometimes prefer to celebrate a Christ without the Cross. So we venerate the Cross this week not as an object of idol worship (as some actually suggest), but as an outward way to profess our belief that... it is only through the Crucifixion (i.e. death on a cross) of Jesus Christ (the one and only Saviour, the Son of God, one with God) that anyone of us on the face of the earth has received the gift of eternal life. Whether we accept that gift is up to each one of us. Lent - the Great Fast - is a time when we reflect on that gift and when we ask God to grant us the wisdom to understand it and the faith to accept it.
