HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

ПАРАФІЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ЄВХАРИСТІЇ

20 March 2016

PALM SUNDAY

20 Березня 2016 р

CAN YOU BELIEVE IT!? Today we triumphantly enter the holy city of Jerusalem with our Lord, which means that very shortly the whole unimaginable drama of Passion Week begins.... The Lenten journey is arriving at its finale. The amazing thing about the Holy Week and Easter experience is that it is practically played out in the same spirit in our Canadian society. The hustle and bustle of life in the city will go on with most people almost oblivious and even indifferent to the drama of salvation taking place in (some) church communities in town. Workers will work, favourite soap operas and serials will be watched, next levels in video games will be achieved, stores and malls will be bursting with shoppers, some will even just go away on holiday. In the mean time Jesus - who many really don't know is truly God and the one and only Saviour - will be shuffled back and forth between trials and punishments and humiliations and finally condemned to execution. When He, already barely alive, is taken away to execution most people will not notice or want to look at the spectacle, except from a distance. His face will be seen in the lonely and abandoned, the helpless and the innocent, the unborn and the elderly, the dying and the forgotten youth, but most will not notice. We might come to get our Easter food blessed, like the people hurried to prepare the Passover, because that's the fun part, and yes we should do that. But we should also pause and ask for the courage to stop everything, listen for the voice of our Lord, and spend time with our Lord together with our family, friends and fellow Christians.
