1 May 2016

SUNDAY of the Man Born Blind

Our Parish Feast of the Holy Eucharist will take place this year on Sunday May 29th with our Metropolitan Lawrence. The dinner will be a catered meal for a goodwill offering. BUT we need you to confirm-RSVP that you will be there for the dinner. Thank you!

A MONTH FOR MARY... Today many of our brothers and sisters celebrate Easter! ХРИСТОС ВОСКРЕС! Also today in Communist countries May 1 was (and still is for some) a created obligatory holiday to celebrate "work" and "peace" and the glory of Communist ideals. (one of the most infamous celebrations was 30 years ago when people all over Ukraine - even the millions of people ↓ right in the contaminated area - had to participate in May 1st parades and festivities out on the streets right after the Chernobyl disaster without even warning them - just to hide the collapsing of the Soviet regime). But it has been a longstanding tradition of the Ukrainian people to have May Devotions - "Mayivky" every day throughout the month of May in honour of Mary the Mother of God. We will try that this year - to honour Mary and to pray for our world that seems to appear more troubling every day. We can trust in the intercession of Mary, however, so please come out every day or whenever you can. Sometimes it will be a Moleben' or an Akafist or a Rosary, depending on the circumstances.
