Green Holidays

The practice of decorating our churches with green-leaved branches has a rich meaning of celebrating new life and enthusiasm as creation and the Church begin anew. Yes, the practice dates back to pre-Christian times - both pagan and Old Testament - as an act of thanking God for the seasonal harvest with which He blesses the people. However, just as so many other things that are fulfilled in the New Testament and are only realized completely with the coming of Christ, so too does the green take on a more profound meaning. At Pentecost the third person of the Holy Trinity - the Holy Spirit - comes upon the Apostles and disciples and they are filled with love, courage and the necessary words to proclaim the Good News of the Gospel to all peoples everywhere, which they will do during their entire lifetime. This is what energizes us today as we complete the Mission Days and celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit... We now dedicate the rest of our lives to living our Faith and sharing it with everyone!

Dearest friends and family,
 With great joy I would like to announce that on Sunday (Pentecost) I will be ordained to the diaconate by Most Rev. Gerald Dino of the Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Phoenix, at Amanda's home parish in Albuquerque.

Please remember me in your prayers! This happy day will also be our 8th wedding Anniversary!
 very best wishes and prayers,
Adam Lowe
