HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

3 July 2016

7th Sunday After Pentecost

26 Липень 2016 р.

It's so easy to get caught up in our vacation plans and grow lazy in our church attendance and spiritual life during the summer months. As the following story reveals, God never goes on vacation and we shouldn't find excuses to take a vacation from church.

Where does God go for summer vacation? A little girl I know pondered that same question not too long ago. Sarah loved Catechism; she went every Sunday. She liked being in church with her parents... but when summer came- it would all end!

Why wasn't there church? Why wasn't there any Catechism? Where did her friends go? She really was concerned. She wondered why the choir stopped singing on Sundays. Even worse, she wondered why there wasn't church in the summer... when in actuality, her parents would just stop going to church in the summer!

The summer was their "time off". Time to lounge in the sun. Time to plan family vacations and weekends away. It was time to concentrate on rest and relaxation. But for Sarah, it was strange not to go to church, see her friends, or be with God.

On the day that her family piled into the station wagon to visit their grandmother, Sarah asked her mother, "Mom, where does God go for summer vacation?"

Her mother chuckled at the question, and told her God doesn't go on vacation.

Sarah wondered, "Why don't we go to church then? Why isn't there any Catechism? Why don't I get to see my church friends?"

Her parents weren't really prepared to deal with questions like this! What could they say? After all, God wasn't on vacation... they were! Imagine her parents' surprise when they realized their little daughter had "stumped them." They just didn't know how to answer her question. But what was really great was that they were worried enough about it to look for an answer!

Until now, her parents thought: Church was only a 1-hour responsibility on Sunday mornings. For Sarah though, it was a different story. She lived what she learned. Church wasn't just an obligation for her. No way! In fact, it was a way of living... a way of being!
