HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

14 August 2016

13th Sunday After Pentecost

14 Серпня 2016 р.

"...I appoint you Pastor of Holy Eucharist Parish...effective 1 August 2016..." These are among the words that I read in the letter received from our Archbishop, Metropolitan Lawrence last week. By time you read this, every Priest and Deacon will have received a similar letter confirming that they will continue to serve where they have for the past number of years - or - asking that they serve in a different parish for the greater spiritual good of the Archeparchy for any number of reasons. I must say that I was very happy to learn that I will continue to serve here at Holy Eucharist with all of you. There were rumours floating around for the last few months and if it was the decision, I was ready to move - as every Priest is so ready. However, when it was confirmed that I am staying here - I felt a great peace. I have come to know the parishioners here well and many more that I want to get to know better. We have grown in a positive spirit that I pray we will grow in the future. Oh we still have unachieved goals and things that we want to do better and develop, but the Lord and His Church have given us more time together to do some great things yet! By His Grace we will achieve His holy Will! We will soon be starting a new Church year. Let's waste no time. Let's talk. No one of us can accomplish anything by ourselves we need the help, ideas and support of each other. Let's not wait to step forward. God bless us all!

- Fr. Michael
