HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

30 October 2016

Feast of Christ the King

30 ЖОВТНЯ 2016 р.

CHRIST OUR PASCHA! The new Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church is now out in English and we want to get down to studying it and learning more about the Faith that we profess. The first adult Faith Discussion on the new Catechism will take place this week on Thursday, November 3rd beginning at 7:00 PM. (some refreshments will be available)

The field of discussion that we will tackle will be the matter of death and the life hereafter. This is not only because of Halloween and All Souls Day in the Western Catholic Churches that occur at this time, but especially because this is often a question that comes up in our own families and in our parish. What is death all about? Why is Christian burial so important? Why do we continue to pray for the deceased? [Then we can move into the Paschal Mystery of our faith.]

In preparation for the discussion, please read the following paragraphs and bring your personal copy of the Catechism.

Paragraphs 510-521 - Christian Burial and Prayer

Paragraphs 245-251 - Resurrection and Judgement

Ukrainian Christmas Traditions with Orysia Tracz at McNally Robinson Classroom Courses Thursday, 1 December 2016, 7 P.M. $20

Why is Ukrainian Christmas so different from the regular English Canadian one? The customs, the food, the songs are from a time before the first actual Christmas, and have been practiced without interruption since those prehistoric times. Orysia Tracz will describe and explain the symbolism behind the special celebrations and how they have been adapted to Canada.
