HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

9 October 2016

21th Sunday after Pentecost/Holy Fathers of 7th Council

9 ЖОВТНЯ 2016 р.

"If you hold to my teaching, you are truly my disciples, and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free!" (John 8:31-32)

Today we begin in our parish a new approach to learning about the faith that we profess. Its really quite simple actually. It begins with our desire to know about our faith and then it requires an active commitment to learn more about it by whatever way it takes. You, see, we truly do ourselves a disservice (and our children and our spouses) when we neglect to learn even the basics about our Faith. Because when issues come up in life, we find that we really don't have the best answer for ourselves or for those that sincerely want to know. Often we see brothers and sisters making poor decisions that affect their lives and the lives of others, because they don't know the light of the Divinely-inspired teaching of their own Church. Yes, the catechism of our childhood was only a beginning (and sometimes even then, due to various circumstances, we didn't get that much of a 'foundation'). We need to be learning more and growing our faith every day. If we choose to give all our time and effort to learn and do other things, but never or seldom occupy ourselves with our Faith, then we choose a fatal ignorance. The world around us is not only screaming out for truth and guidance, it is asking us who [should] know for direction. We ourselves are sometimes hard pressed to know what is the right thing to do as a Catholic, or what is the right attitude. Christ through His Church gives answers. We need to ask.
