A Special Thank You to everyone who goes a bit beyond "the call of duty" in parish life. There are actually many. This includes everyone who helps in any parish social or fundraising event... those who keep the church and parish facilities clean and beautiful... and assist at Liturgical events (Divine Liturgy, funerals, Molebens, etc.)... those that come out week after week for the Social Club fundraisers on Tuesday evenings... and the ones who do the potato-prep and Perogy-making. This includes those that involve themselves with the organizations within our parish and all that these clubs do. This includes those who make generous donations (Lk 21:3). Then there are those that find time to regularly visit and call our parishioners that are ill, in care homes or just have difficulty leaving their own homes.... those that volunteer to teach Catechism (and those that come and bring their children)... those that attend Sunday Divine Liturgy (and especially those that come every day!) and those that bring people to church services... those that decorate and sew and bring flowers... those that spend time in prayer... that read... help with Communion... those that make a point of showing kindness... those that make long-time parishioners and new ones feel welcome and at home,,, and those that do so many things that perhaps can't all be listed. We don't express it enough, but... THANK YOU! Really... Thank you!

Ukrainian Christmas Traditions with Orysia Tracz at McNally Robinson Classroom Courses Thursday, 1 December 2016, 7 P.M. $20

Why is Ukrainian Christmas so different from the regular English Canadian one? The customs, the food, the songs are from a time before the first actual Christmas, and have been practiced without interruption since those prehistoric times. Orysia Tracz will describe and explain the symbolism behind the special celebrations and how they have been adapted to Canada.
