HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

11 December 2016

Sunday of the Holy Fathers

11 Грудня 2016 р.

Who are the "Holy Forefathers"?

On this second Sunday before Christmas we celebrate the memory of the holy and righteous ones who lived in the innocence of life before God in the first age of the Old Testament up to the time when Moses received and proclaimed the Law of God. These people we refer to as the Forefathers or Patriarchs. The amazing paths along which Divine Providence led them are a great testimony of how God over the ages watched over and always will watch over the Righteous. The Forefathers lived holy lives and they died in sanctity, but their souls after death could not yet see God. They awaited the coming of the Saviour with great anticipation in the place assigned to them and it was only after His death when Christ descended into Hades that Heaven was open to them and they were able to gaze upon their Creator face to face. Today the remembrance of these holy patriarchs... Adam, Abel, Seth, Enoch, Noah, Shem, Japheth, Abraham, Lot, Isaac, Melchizedek, Jacob, Joseph and so many others are a sign that our solemn celebration of the coming of Christ Jesus has begun...

The blessing of homes begins after the Feast of Holy Theophany January 6.

If you wish to have your home blessed, please leave your name and number with the Parish office 204-667-8866 and an appointment will be made for you.

Holy Eucharist as a Parish will be collecting food for the less fortunate in our community for the Christmas Season. We ask all parishioners to please donate non-perishable foods...soup, beans, pasta, pasta sauce, etc... Please drop off your items in the box located at the back of the Church or bring your items to the Parish Office during the week!! If you are unable to donate food items and would still love to participate we will be accepting cash donations. Lets make this Christmas count for Everyone !!!

Thank you to everyone who joined in by helping or even just by participating in the St. Nicholas Day events last week! That is a taste of true parish spirit. Let us keep moving forward - joyful and relaxed and yet energetic - to make this a beautiful Christmas not only for ourselves and our own, but for absolutely everyone! What is the spirit of the season? It is about self-sacrifice, love, giving and gathering around the only source of joy - Jesus our Lord...

Pick up your CATECHISM Book Today!!! Ushers will have them at the back of the Church this Sunday!!!!

Catechism News!!!

Thank you to everyone who helped with the St. Nicholas Celebration last week! The food prepared by the teachers was hot and ready and the dainties donated by the parishioners very much appreciated. St. Nick even came! On behalf of all those present, thank you!

Catechism Schedule: The last catechism class for the year is on December 18th. Please refer to the detailed schedule for January - May that is attached below. All classes are from held from 11:00 - 12:00 on the scheduled Sundays.

Some exciting new developments! Please note that due to parent requests, we will be offering activity-based classes for 3 and 4 year olds going forward and that registrations are still being accepted for children between 3 years of age through 12 who wish to join the program in January. Parents, grandparents and family members are invited come downstairs and join in the opening prayer service and parent discussions facilitated by Dr. Penny held each catechism Sunday, too.
