WE CELEBRATE THIS DAY OF THE LORD WITH ONE LESS PRIEST

This past Friday, the Church in Manitoba bid farewell to a man who 'set his hand to the plow' over 70 years ago and never turned back for a moment (Luke 9:62). He was a good and worthy servant of the Lord and His Church... His People. Of the many parishes that Fr. Eugene Rudachek served - our parish, Holy Eucharist Parish was one! He served in so many ways in so many parishes over almost 66 years of Priesthood. He never wanted to retire and asked repeatedly to be given a parish anywhere. Fortunately he was still able to celebrate the Divine Liturgy almost to the end and he served as a confessor at Holy Family Parish also right to the last Sunday before he was finally hospitalized—only a few days before the Lord took him home on old calendar Christmas Eve (or on the feast of Theophany?) 6 January 2017. Fr Eugene touched the lives of many, many people over the years - including your present Parish Priest who he taught Catechism and led in the Youth Club in Brandon. May our loving Lord take his soul to Himself and may Fr. Eugene continue to pray for us all.
