HOLY EUCHARIST PARISH

26 February 2017

Sunday of Cheese-fare

26 Лютого 2017 р.

me Forgiveness Sunday

Today we stand at the edge of a desert as far as the eye can see. We look out. We are about to begin a great journey that will test our resolve and our strength and our willingness to give ourselves over to Our Lord. We stand surrounded with many people who are also planning to make the trip. We can travel together. It will be easier that way. We will be able to support each other when it becomes challenging. Still, some will want to "go it alone". They may try that for awhile. Some will try to control the situation as they travel. Futile. Some will give up after a day or two and some may be too afraid to even begin. We commend all our fellow travellers to the Lord in prayer. But... for any of us... the trip will be so much easier if we make peace with our Lord and with everyone around us before we go. In fact the trip will be impossible if we try to carry the burden of anger or grudges or unforgiven hurt. Someone you know may lack the courage to ask forgiveness... forgive them. Some may not accept your apology - give them time. You may feel that some things are unforgiveable or too far gone. Then you need to get to know the Lord better, for that is not the case. There are grave sins that will require much penance and healing. But all is forgivable and atonable...

February 26: Forgiveness (Cheese-Fare)

Sunday (Matt 6:14-21)

This Sunday emphasizes forgiveness and how we must forgive others if God is to forgive us so we can break the chains of sinful tendency which we inherit from the Adam and Eve. This is the last day of preparation as the traditional Lenten fast begins on the following day where no meat, dairy or eggs are to be eaten according to the church tradition.

The Knitting club will meet Monday February 27 at 10 am in the Parish Centre Multi-purpose room. If anyone would like to donate wool please drop it off to the parish office during the week. The ladies will be making items for cancer patients.

Remember to visit the Archeparchy website for many interesting news items and information. www.archeparchy.ca
