12 March 2017

Second Sunday of LENT

12 Березень 2017 р.

ARE YOU FOR REAL? We might have been asked that question at some point. More than likely it was meant as a rhetorical question more meant to be a declaration that what we are saying or doing is unrealistic or impossible or perhaps unsettling. What we would need to do is check what we are saying/doing and see if it truly is something offensive and improper. Then we should adjust our position. However, sometimes we are asked that question by expressing our Faith in word or by our actions. This is something that true Christians have heard since the time of Christ. The Scribes and Pharisees during our Lord's earthly mission basically told Him repeatedly "are You for real?". Pontius Pilate trying to avoid making a decision about Jesus, was asking Him, "are you for real?" Some, like the disciples of John the Baptist asked this question sincerely (Luke 7:18-22). This is a question that the followers of Christ should expect to be asked throughout their life. If we are living our faith as (Ukrainian) Catholics in our present insecure, searching and aggressive culture, we will be asked that question often - at work, at school, among our friends and even at home. Regardless if the question is asked sincerely or as a provocation, our answer should always be an informed, confident and hopeful "yes, of course I am". Informed - because we want to know our faith better and be sure that our understanding is truly the understanding of our Church. Confident - because our Faith means everything to us. Hopeful - because we welcome the chance to talk about and share our Faith that we and those around us will grow in faith day by day!
