GOD BLESS THE LEAGUE!

We honour all the members of our Parish Branch of the Ukrainian Catholic Women's League of Canada today as they join all the many branches across Canada today for their annual "League Day". We ask our good Lord to richly bless and reward them and their families for all the amazing work that they do in our parish: Their fundraising, their contribution to so many aspects of parish life throughout the year - Catechism, Youth, Dinners, Praznyky, Altar Guild, Church and liturgical needs, visiting the elderly and the sick, faithfully attending Sunday and daily Liturgies and Molebens, etc. etc.! As a Parish - together with our whole Ukrainian Catholic Church in Canada - we are truly blessed to have so many dedicated ladies always supporting the mission of the Church in such a kind and tireless way. MNOHAYA LITA, LADIES! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

INTERNATIONAL PEACE GARDEN FIELD LITURGY
 The popular annual Mass organized by the Knights of Columbus at the International Peace Garden on the border between Canada and the United States is scheduled to take place this year on 9 July 2017. The unique peace zone that overlaps both the U.S. and Canadian borders is located directly south of Brandon where Manitoba Highway #10 meets U.S. Route #281.
 Although the day includes a multicultural Rosary, a children's program and a catered meal, the highlight is the 57th annual Divine Liturgy at 12:00 Noon. This year it is being led by the Ukrainian Catholic Church with the Manitoba State Chaplain, our very own Rev. Michael Kwiatkowski officiating.
