For God so loved the world

(John 3:16)

These words are found in today's Gospel reading for this relatively newer feast that has been transferred from Friday to Sunday. The quote is a favourite among Christians because it talks about the essence of Jesus' purpose for choosing to come into the world and teach us and love us and experience the challenges and rejection, even unto death. He loves us that much! Not just "all" of us as a collective whole, but He loves each and every one of us - yes, YOU, in a special way. We must not be afraid of building a personal relationship, a friendship with Jesus Who is present to us in our daily lives. The highlight of this rapport is found in the Holy Eucharist as we receive the living Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion. This is real! It is also a sign of our unity with Christ and the members of His Church. It is also a life-giving spiritual 'nourishment' for our souls as we strive to live our Catholic Faith more boldly in our daily lives. The Lord came into a world of hate and dishonesty and immoral living. He brought light and life and LOVE. We are called to do the same and we can!, but only by living and sharing the true love of Christ. Our society needs this... let's move forward...
