Time is short ...For this world...is passing away

(1Cor 7:29-31) We are into the summer months and time is already moving! Have you ever been in that situation? You're standing on the platform and the train starts moving! You are on a hike or tour with a group of people and before you know it, they are moving along and you have to hurry to catch up! Well, the gift of summer will also slip away if we don't take advantage of it while we can. [Already for half a month, the days have been getting shorter!]. First, let's do the simple stuff... get outside as much as you can and just enjoy the warmth and fresh air and the beauty of God's creation - and the amazing stuff that mankind does with it (parks, architecture, etc). Then get around while its easier and visit family and friends and those in need and who would love a visit or two from you! Get around for the sake of your health! Walk! Sure you might ache a bit more at first, but in time you'll be so glad! Make a pilgrimage! Come spend time with the Lord more often in His Churches. Ask someone to join you or to take you - especially children, grandchildren. [Let's] Have a good summer...
