The perfect gifts for St. Nicholas, Christmas and New Year - not to mention: Birthdays and just-because!

ONLY A WEEK UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

If you're not in a panic, GREAT! Don't start now. Because the real reason for the whole celebration is what? It is a peaceful celebration of the coming of Christ the Son of God - i.e. our one and only Saviour - into the world. It is a time that gives us solid hope and sets everything into perspective. No matter what struggles or worries or hurt we may be experiencing in life... Christmas is a powerful reminder that, "Hey! The Lord is coming! We need to very simply turn to Him, give our lives and concerns to Him, follow His path in life [i.e. the Gospel and the Teaching of His Church] and everything will come together!" All the other Christmas traditions may be fun and heartwarming, but if they start to take precedence over the spiritual, religious celebration, then maybe we need to step back a bit and, again, put our priorities into perspective. Come to think of it.... If our goal is to get as much family together for a Christmas supper and maybe present-opening around the Christmas tree, that is truly good. But what if we set the bar even higher... what if the whole family makes a point of making this Christmas a spiritually renewing moment... we all make time for the Sacrament of Confession at some point and then we all arrange to attend a Christmas Divine Liturgy together (we have 3 scheduled!)! And be able to all receive the Lord in Holy Communion together - thus, truly rededicating ourselves to the Lord and uniting ourselves in a real and powerful way with the living Christ Whose being born into the world we are soon to celebrate...
