The perfect gifts for the New Year, St Valentine's Day and Anniversaries - not to mention: Birthdays and just-because!

I'm sorry, so sorry...

Perhaps we may have heard the old 1960 Brenda-Lee classic "I'm sorry, so sorry... I was such a fool... But that don't right the wrong that's been done... Please accept my apology..." Well, there are more beautiful resources than a pop song that explain the need for repentance and the need to ask for forgiveness. This "Sunday of Forgiveness" and the liturgical texts from vespers and matins and the Scripture readings offer perfect "food for thought". However, the bottom line is that we want to begin the journey of the Great Fast on a right footing. We want to begin drawing closer to God by first making peace with all and any we may have hurt in the past. Not just hurt their feelings (because that happens sometimes even when it shouldn't) but hurt people by negligence, by unwarranted rejection, by slander and gossip, because of selfishness. Even if we hurt people because of ignorance, or fear, or immaturity, or a misunderstanding. If we know better now... we would do well to say, "Hey I'm sorry. I didn't realize it fully at the time how hurtful my actions (or words or lack thereof) were, but now I do. And I am truly sorry." That sometimes can not undo the harm, but it is a beginning! It is something we need to do, as hard as it may seem. Then we will truly have a great Lent... Come tonight and it will be a start...
