PASSION WEEK begins amidst joy.....

Today the Lord enters the ancient, holy city of Jerusalem. The final "act" of Jesus' public ministry and of God's plan of salvation has begun. The leaders of His own people, the Sanhedren, and the Roman authorities and ordinary people like you and me, will soon be whipped into a frenzy with the determination to kill Christ! What!? Why? This can't be. Look around and see how the whole city is out today cheering, waving branches and just feeling great, because the Messiah has finally arrived! Wait for for it...? Wait for what!? In a few days Jesus will not be welcome, but arrested? We will either join the crowd on demanding His death, or we will run and hide? Impossible! Yet.... that is the drama that we will see unfold this week. Watch for it. Live it. Walk through it with your parish. If we really set everything aside and just participate in the services and spend the time in between reading and in prayer or visiting the sick—we will have a Holy week like no other. Make the decision...

We welcome Walter Zulak and the Macenko Memorial Male Choir today!
They will be back on Good Friday. Don't miss it!
