Did you ever notice that Parish meals aren't really about the food? It's a time of fellowship... being with friends and, especially, being a friend...

Ever have that strong urge just to see it for yourself? And the temptation arose to sort of draw a line in the sand and say,

NOPE! I WON'T BELIEVE IT UNTIL I SEE IT!

Well, we might be tempted to do that sometimes when.... we are being asked to believe something that is really incredible... or something that will change our lives completely if we accept it... or maybe we feel that we deserve to see what others have seen! You know what? All these hesitations to say "Yes, I believe!" are understandable. They are understandable, but not necessary. Belief and Faith are gifts given to us by the Lord IF we accept them. Not only is it possible to believe without seeing, but the Lord Jesus goes as far as to say blessed are those that believe even though they have NOT seen. That probably includes most of us attending Church today! But, that assessment would probably need clarification. We might not have seen a vision of the Lord as some of the saints have, but we have seen the Lord present in our lives. We have seen indisputable evidence of the hand of God at certain times in our life. We are convinced beyond doubt that Jesus is risen and He is at the heart of our lives! So, we understand Thomas, but we say with the Lord, "Stop your doubting, and believe!"

- ◆ We are truly in need of someone (or a team of someones) willing to make a commitment to the Sacristy ministry in our parish. This would be someone who comes to the church or would like to start coming - on a daily or almost daily basis. The responsibilities (which, again, could be shared) would involve preparing the Altar area for liturgical services, maintaining supplies and in most cases supervising/assisting the services. We are talking about a traditional "starshyj brat" or "elder" who would proudly serve the parish in this important role.
- ◆ We are looking for a music ministry coordinator. A person who knows music, is familiar with the basics of Ukrainian Catholic liturgical life and is willing to learn - and to help parishioners to learn - new services, chants, hymns and musical experiences.
- ◆ If you are interested (always wanted to, but were afraid to ask!) or would like to propose someone to either of these positions, please speak with our Parish Priest, Fr Michael. Your parish really needs you. Really.
