

FIRST ONES IN AND THE LAST ONES OUT!

This phrase was probably made most famous by the U.S. Marines. It's a bold claim and a courageous challenge to live up to. Well, when it comes to Church, we don't necessarily have to be the first to arrive, but it just makes so much sense to arrive early enough to take a pew, relax and spend a few moments collecting our thoughts and focusing on the amazing Liturgy that is about to begin. Is there a reason to come late? Not really, unless a tire went flat or an injured or needy person was encountered along the way. But it takes decision... to come on time and be there to give the Lord the best that we have and to show kindness to those beside us. What about leaving early? Why? Does one have to work on Sunday for a horrible boss who is just looking for an excuse to fire the worker who comes in 5 minutes late? Doubtful. Some people have compared leaving church before the service is over as similar to exiting the plane before the flight is over. Staying to offer a prayer of thanksgiving to the Lord after having received His Gift of Himself in Holy Communion and to hear the closing announcements, and a hymn and the opportunity to greet fellow parishioners - a rare weekly opportunity for some - makes it worth the few minutes between Communion and the Dismissal. Something to think and pray about. Have a wonderful Sunday!
