Artist poses with 2018 "Hidden Gem" award presented to Holy Eucharist Parish - 20 June 2018

USE IT OR LOSE IT! COME HANG OUT AT JESUS' PLACE

Once again, our parish church won an award for the DOORS OPEN annual city-wide effort to showcase Winnipeg's most beautiful and fascinating places. We had record numbers of people visiting our amazing place of worship this year to see the interior and hear explanations about: the history, the meaning of the Byzantine artwork and to experience our welcoming hospitality. The same day we also had the Family Fun Day just across the street at the Parish Centre. The award - voted in by the people who went around the city visiting almost 80 museums, churches and other historic sites - was "Hidden Gem". Which maybe isn't that surprising as almost everyone that visits our Holy Eucharist is moved to awe and silence as they take in the real beauty of our church. Almost everyone who come for the first time say "I never imagined that it was so breath-taking". Those that come back say, "It really is an inspiring place!". Probably what many understand, but maybe not everyone, is that the awe with which they are inspired is the real presence of God! Let's take more advantage of our Church ourselves. Come more often. Come early, stay later. Just sit (stand, kneel) in the presence of the Lord Your God and pray in silence and study and contemplate the mysteries and saints depicted in the art...

COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

Congratulations to our teacher and coach, Mrs. Christine Rewniak, on being awarded the 2018 Grey Cup Legacy Female High School Coach of the Year! This award is presented by the Manitoba High Schools Athletic Association (MHSAA). Christine received the award yesterday, at the MHSAA AGM that took place in Brandon, MB.

☐ Congratulations Mrs. Rewniak! Way to Hold High The Torch!

Congratulations to Holy Eucharist Parish on winning the Hidden Gem Award in this years "Doors Open" Heritage Winnipeg Event.

Once again a big thank you to all the volunteers that made this event such a great success! What a great way to start our 100th Year Celebrations...by showcasing the beauty of our church and all the wonders it holds inside. Many, many people came through the doors and left knowing us a little bit better!!

Congratulations!!
