The Pope thanks the Ukrainian Greek-Catholic Church (UGCC) for its witness to the unity of Christ's Church Pope Francis meets with His Beatitude Sviatoslav at the Vatican Wednesday, 04 July 2018,

His Beatitude Sviatoslav has told the Pope that the road travelled by the UGCC was a path of martyrdom, a "testimony of the unity that Christ's Church enjoyed in the First Millennium, at the time of the Baptism of Saint Volodymyr, and a particular witness of martyrs and confessors for Church unity, - in the 20th century." "Our Church's path of martyrdom consists in a recognition of the particular mission of the Successors of the Apostle Peter as visible servants of the unity of Christ's Church," the Head of the UGCC declared in his conversation with the Holy Father.

The Holy Father also expressed his closeness to the Ukrainian nation which, as the victim of unjust aggression, is living through a painful period of its history. He assured His Beatitude that he constantly thought of and prayed for Ukraine. Pope Francis drew particular attention to the issue of Polish-Ukrainian reconciliation, especially this year when both nations are celebrating the centenary of their restoration of statehood, and the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Volyn Tragedy. He thanked His Beatitude Sviatoslav for the book "Dialogue Heals Wounds," which the Pope considered to be an important step in healing old wounds, - in the relations between the two nations. The Pope supported the idea of the Roman Catholic Church and the Ukrainian Catholic Church, in Poland and Ukraine, issuing a joint pastoral letter, and declaring Pope Saint John Paul II patron saint of Ukrainian-Polish reconciliation.

His Beatitude assured the Holy Father that the UGCC will unite itself with him and with all the participants of the joint ecumenical act of prayer for peace in the Middle East, due to take place on 7 July in Bari (southern Italy). The Pope promised that, during this prayer, he will also remember Ukraine.

Pope Francis was in full agreement with His Beatitude's idea to organize, next year in Rome, a meeting of Eastern Catholic bishops of Europe (COCE). The Pope promised to participate at this gathering, of which the main theme will be "The Ecumenical Mission of the Eastern Catholic Churches of Europe Today."

At the conclusion of the audience, the Father and Head of the UGCC presented Pope with the book "Persecuted for the Truth," published by the Ukrainian Catholic University, and asked for the Apostolic Blessing upon the Ukrainian nation. PARISHIONERS! In the interest of expanding our collective stewardship for our Parish - we are adding to our liturgical participation. We thank those who now accept taking turns Reading, Greeting, Ushering/Collecting, assisting at Holy Communion and helping distribute Holy Communion as well as the Altar Servers and the Girls of Mary. Now we are expanding to the services of Sacristan and Acolyte. If you are designated as a SACRISTAN (an "S" in front of your name above), don't panic. All it involves, for now, is that you come a bit earlier to light the candles before the Iconostas(2), on the Tetrapod(2), on the Prokomedinyk(2) & upon the Altar(14). After the Divine Liturgy, simply, respectfully, extinguish them all. ACOLYTE ("A"), for now, simply means lighting the charcoal for the Censer (kadylo) before the Divine Liturgy, placing it out in the Sanctuary and asking the presiding Priest if help will be needed during the Liturgy. He may ask that you remain near the Altar to pass the Kadylo when needed, and to lead the entrances (with the Gospel and with the Gifts) with a candle and open and close the "deacons' doors".
