

22 July 2018 9th Sunday after Pentecost—Holy Fathers of the first 6 Councils 22 Липня 2018 р.

So why do we celebrate the Bishops at the first Six Ecumenical Councils!?

Well, those were troubled times for the Church [like most times] and there were some major questions that the Church had to answer. If the Church gave a poor answer or a wrong answer or one that simply was not inspired by the Holy Spirit.... it would open the door to a lot of confusion and division among the faithful and even the collapse of the Church as we know it today. It was a time of great confusion - someone started teaching something that was wrong (we might call it "fake truth")....the mistaken teachers would start pushing a certain teaching that might not seem that wrong at first or it might even sound like an easy solution. But it was wrong. If someone didn't catch the error it would eventually come back to bite - in a short time or over a long period. One recent example, of course, would be the contraception debate in the 1960s. The Church had to decide on which way to go. Most sociologists and theologians today say "Thank God" that the Church saw that contraception was immoral and that it would lead to several woes if approved. [unfortunately many accepted it - including some Christian communities and we see the results in modern western society - destabilization of marriage and family; increased divorce; abortion, reduced respect for women]. Anyway... the "Fathers" of the first six councils saw a need to establish the basic truths of our Faith by hammering out the Creed "I believe in one God...", they declared that Jesus was in fact the divine Son of God, they fought off the teaching that the Holy Spirit was not God, in fact they defined (as best as they could) the Holy Trinity... they decided on a number of false teachings ("heresies") that needed to be corrected. They also issued a series of "canons" that brought order to the Church on a world-scale... various rules and regulations to help the Church decide various matters and procedures. After these councils, was there peace? Well, then began the whole iconoclast controversy about whether pictures and icons are allowed. Terrible fights and arrests and torture came about (can you imagine!?) but that's another story...

The Head of the UGCC in Zarvanytsia: It was in the UGCC that for 1030 years the treasure of faith was passed down from one generation to another.

Sunday, 15 July 2018

The Pilgrimage to Zarvanytsia, which this year is devoted to the 1030th anniversary of the Baptism of Rus'-Ukraine, was attended by the faithful from all over Ukraine and the whole world: the countries of Europe, the USA, Canada, Argentina, and Australia.

The Hierarchical Divine Liturgy was headed by the Father and Head of the UGCC. His Beatitude Sviatoslav prayed for peace and integrity of Ukraine. Also, the President of Ukraine Petro Poroshenko came to pray there. Numerous pilgrims congratulated the Head of State with applause.

In his sermon to the faithful, the Primate of the Church noted that faith is the greatest treasure as the Gospel of today proclaims. "When a person knows Who is the only One to fulfill his dream, when a person can touch Someone he is looking for, more than that, when a person can let his dreams touch upon him, then miracles occur," said the Head of the Church.

We came here from different corners of Ukraine and the world to celebrate the 1030th anniversary of the Baptism of Ukraine. "And today, in Zarvanytsia, we thank that for the period of 1030 years, in our families, the gift of the Christian faith has been passed down as the greatest treasure. Today we thank God that it was the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church who was privileged to be a successor to Prince Volodymyr and his holy Baptism," said the preacher.

"In the most difficult times of the trials," said the preacher, "at the time of the Tartar invasion, during the time of foreign reigns, when our Ukraine, our land was deprived of all its good, our grandfathers and great-grandfathers did not lose the treasure of faith."

"Even when there was no other earthly institution," continued the Primate, "which could protect the rights of our people, the shepherds and leaders of our Church became the voice of the nation, which was denied of the right to exist. It was because of the fact that the Church made it possible for every Ukrainian to touch upon Jesus. Therefore, in the times of the Soviet Union, when the other Churches - heirs of Volodymyr's Baptism ceased to represent the interests of their people, it was our Church that turned into the largest group of social opposition to the atheistic communist rule. We were able to survive as a nation from the dissolution among the so-called Soviet people. And we as the Church, came out as winners over the godless atheistic regime."

Pilgrims also come to this holy place as the preacher said to meet not only with each other, but first of all to meet with The Most Blessed Virgin Mary, with our Mother, who never left us. In order to pray before Her wonder-working Zarvanyts'ka icon, an icon that is a witness of all the above-said.

"Let us ask the Mother of God, so that through Her prayers, through the intercession and prayers of the faithful hearts in our Church, the Lord would touch all of our people. That the thing we pray and dream of would become a reality in our lives," asked the Head of the Church.

Cardinal Gualtiero Bassetti, President of the Italian Episcopal Conference, in whose diocese in Italy today there are about half a million Ukrainians, also prayed in the Liturgy.

"I think," said the patriarch, "not one Italian pastor asks Ukrainians 'what do you dream of?'" What do Ukrainians dream of today? First of all, they dream of peace. They brought for today's Pilgrimage, perhaps, the greatest desire - the desire to end the war. People are able to start a war, but the peace comes only from God."

Ukrainians have another dream, the Primate noted. "Here we have a monument to the Ukrainian migrant workers. To Argentina, Canada, and the United States, their ancestors traveled a hundred years ago. But they took with them the largest national treasure of Ukraine - faith in God. And Ukrainians are dreaming today that Ukraine would never lose that treasure," said His Beatitude Sviatoslav.

The Head of the Church stressed that the greatest treasure we received from Prince Volodymyr was the key to our victory, a guarantee that Ukraine was, is and will be. But only when it remains Christian.

PARISHIONERS! In the interest of expanding our collective stewardship for our Parish - we are adding to our liturgical participation. We thank those who now accept taking turns Reading, Greeting, Ushering/Collecting, assisting at Holy Communion and helping distribute Holy Communion as well as the Altar Servers and the Girls of Mary. Now we are expanding to the services of Sacristan and Acolyte. If you are designated as a SACRISTAN (an "S" in front of your name above), don't panic. All it involves, for now, is that you come a bit earlier to light the candles before the Iconostas(2), on the Tetrapod(2), on the Prokomedynyk(2) & upon the Altar(14). After the Divine Liturgy, simply, respectfully, extinguish them all. ACOLYTE ("A"), for now, simply means lighting the charcoal for the Censer (kadylo) before the Divine Liturgy, placing it out in the Sanctuary and asking the presiding Priest if help will be needed during the Liturgy. He may ask that you remain near the Altar to pass the Kadylo when needed, and to lead the entrances (with the Gospel and with the Gifts) with a candle and open and close the "deacons' doors".
