ONE MONTH UNTIL WE SET OUT ON THE JOURNEY OF THE GREAT FAST

We have one wonderful month to “wrap our minds around” one of the most important exercises of the Great Fast. It is something that we must do before we even make our first step on the 40+days journey toward passion week and the resurrection of our Lord (and us with Him). It is, of course, forgiveness. Without true and sincere forgiveness in our hearts toward all and anyone who harmed or offended us... the rest of the journey and all our efforts are pointless and they will be fruitless. There are so many verses from the living Word of God that speak about the absolute importance and necessity of forgiveness. “Forgive as the Lord forgave you” (Corinthians 3:13). “if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.” (Matthew 6:15-16). The Lord does not say we have to be doormats. We should bring our hurt and indignation to the attention of those who hurt us (maybe they don’t fully realize... maybe we are mistaken) and give sincere reconciliation a chance! “If your brother or sister sins, rebuke them!”, the Lord tells us. However He goes on to say, “if [they] repent, forgive [them]; and if [they] sin against you seven times in the day, and turn to you seven times, and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive [them].” (Luke 17”3-4) Let us prepare to seek repentance and offer forgiveness. Not only will it make our life more bright and wonderful, it will open the door to unimagined possibilities. Besides.... If we do not strive for this, our Lent will be hollow and pointless no matter how much fasting and praying and good works we may do for others. Let us accept this challenge... we have a month to do everything in our power. In the famous story of Lord of the Rings, as a critical moment Gandalf the Grey stands toward obstinate evil and declares, “you shall not pass!” Well, we would do well to let these words ring in our ears if we think that we will get through even if we do not forgive when we should.... If we do not forgive one another from the heart, we can not enter the path of the Great Fast and, more heartbreaking by far, we will not pass into a life of joy here and now... and we will not pass into life eternal....

You shall not pass!
