Theophany of Our Lord - "Jordan"

6 Січня 2019

All you who have been baptised into Christ have put on Christ! Alleluia! (Gal 3:27)

WOW! But what does that mean? Well, the better we understand what that means, the more "wowed" we become. Through Baptism alone, we become part of the Church. We become part of the 'Mystical Body of Christ'. We become participants in the death and resurrection of Christ! Our sin is washed away. Just as Jesus began His public ministry at the moment of His Baptism, we also begin a new life when we are Baptised into Christ. We refer to the Baptism of Jesus as the "Theophany" (which is a "revealing of God"), because it becomes clear to us by what takes place (cf Matthew 3:13-17) that there is God the Father, God the Son (Jesus) and God the Holy Spirit. Through our Baptism, we become official members of the Church and we are now open to receive the other Mysteries (Sacraments). Yes, in a mystical, but very real way, we become sharers in Christ's function as a Priest, Prophet and King. In other words we are called in a special way to Sanctify the world around us like a Priest, Preach the Word of God like a Prophet and rule and offer Guidance for the good of people around us like a King! (read more - Catechism "Christ, Our Pascha" 197-202).

Bring a container and take Holy Water home to bless your property and family and dedicate them to the Lord!

HAVE A CONCERN? WANT TO GET MORE INVOLVED? LET US KNOW!

FOR A HOSPITAL VISIT, CALL THE CLERGY DIRECTLY - Please don't procrastinate. If some one is taken to hospital let your priest know. It's quite unfair to wait until the person can not communicate or receive Holy Communion. It's called Anointing of the Sick - not "last rites"
