

“Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East - That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together” - Pope Francis asks that the Church pray for this intention throughout the month of November.

Is there any hope for peace and reconciliation in an area where peoples have been warring with each other for decades and centuries? It might not seem so at times. Yet.... There are rays of hope. Perhaps not many know, but at the United Nations Muslim Countries team up with the predominantly Christian or Catholic countries, together with the Vatican to promote life issues or defeat shocking socially detrimental bills that would otherwise promote abortion, undermine the status of the family and gender identity politics.

Just this last week, leaders from the three principal monotheistic religions (believe in one God) - Christians, Muslims and Jews - issued a joint declaration against euthanasia ('mercy' killing) and M.A.I.D. (doctor-assisted suicide), but strongly spoke in increasing access to positive palliative care (respectful and loving care for those who are dying). These are the three principal religions of the people that often fight amongst each other in the Near East. So... there is a great deal of hope if on a religious or faith level, they can agree on at least some fundamental questions. Let us find time in November to pray for the intention that the Holy Father has proposed....
