WHEN IS THE RIGHT TIME TO LET GO OF ANGER AND SHAME? WHEN DO WE FORGIVE AND RESTORE AND BUILD LIFE ANEW?

The parable of the Prodigal Son is filled with images and experiences that we might have had personally or witnessed in the people around us. Well... first of all, we have experienced it personally and. Alas, continue to do so from time to time as we strive for perfection in our spiritual lives. How so? in our relationship with our heavenly Father ... with God. When we decide to drift away from Him in sin, we are saying basically "Lord Father, give me the riches and benefits of grace and salvation, but I want to go off and live my own life as I feel". We wander off in a way no less insolent or disrespectful or immature than the younger son in today's parable. However, thank God, the time does come sooner than later that we realize that we have gone way off course and are headed to certain death unless we return to the only right path and return to the love of the Father. That is what the Prodigal does. He swallows his pride and decides to face his inexcusable shame and return to his father that he knows loves him no matter what. We too make mistakes and cause great harm to ourselves and others by choosing sin. We may do so because we became weak in our faith, because we bought the lies of the world, because we were weak in our Catholic convictions. Sometimes the mistakes that we make can not be "made right" over night. (an injury or death because of drunk or high driving; a broken marriage and family with innocent children involved; a major public scandal; a crime; etc). But the loving Father does take us back when we come "home". He runs out to greet us and hug us and forgive us. We are called to do the same and we CAN do the same, but we too must see the bigger picture - he/she was lost and is now found or trying to find the path back, he/she was dead and is now alive or trying to come back among the living. Yes, there might be "repairs" and ongoing "responsibilities" that must be dealt with, because of the mistakes. But if we prodigals can step forward and say "Father, I made a mess. I want to come back" and if we can be like the loving Father and embrace the sincerely repentant prodigal and tell him/her "hey, I know, but we are going to deal with it all day by day, but you are home and we are glad that you are!", then there is great hope and life is ours again! Courage!
