COVID-19 PROVISIONARY PARISH WEEKLY UPDATE - NO. 18

LORD, WE PRAY YOU TO MANIFEST YOUR GLORY TO US AS YOU DID TO STRENGTHEN YOUR APOSTLES BEFORE THE PASSION.... LORD, MAY YOUR GLORY BE REFLECTED IN US THAT WE MAY BE A SOURCE OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO THOSE AROUND US!...

Thursday - The Transfiguration • Преображення - Четвер

This Thursday we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord. Please plan to attend - either in person at our Church or via livestreaming online. Not only because it is a day of obligation (a day, aside from every Sunday, when Ukrainian Catholics are to attend the Divine Liturgy c. 114, §1, 11), but because it is truly an inspiring celebration of an extraordinary moment in Christ's earthly ministry with a profound message for His Church and for each of us personally.

Jesus took three of His Apostles out for a walk one day. They ascended the mountain, Mount Tabor, as Jesus spoke to them, explaining things to them and encouraging them. He knew that just around the corner that they will experience unexpected, even shocking things. Jesus will be handed over (will surrender Himself) to the hatred and violence of His enemies. The Apostles will be terrified and persecuted and they will think that all is lost. Jesus wants to show them that these things must come to pass, but it will only seem that all is lost. Jesus is Lord. He is God and He will rise again and He is already victorious as is His Church and those that remain faithful to Him and keep His Word. On Mount Tabor, Jesus even shows them a glimpse of His divine glory that they would know and remember that He is not only the Messiah, but He is God. Just around the corner in our day, the Church will face unexpected challenges and even shocking things. Let us be inspired and strengthened in our Faith and dedication to our Lord through our celebration of the Transfiguration of our Lord, Who tells His Apostles and us, "Rise, and have no fear."

This is the day when we bless the first fruits! See blessing inside...➔

PRAYER FOR BLESSING OF FIRST FRUITS ON TRANSFIGURATION

On August 6th, Please join from home and bless your fruit basket with holy water

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord Response: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O Lord, our God, Who have blessed the cycle of the year and have crowned it with fruit-bearing; Who in Your great patience have commanded the earth bring forth its fruits for our nourishment, grant that the partaking of the first-fruits and harvest of summer may be for the health of our body and soul, and bless us with an abundant increase in all good things: For You are the Provider of all good things, and we give glory to You, Father, Son and

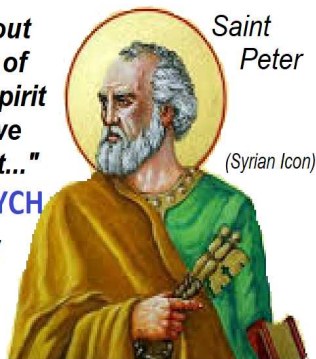

Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Response: Amen! Then the priest (or someone at home) sprinkles the fruit with holy water saying: These fruits are blessed by the sprinkling of this holy water, in the name of the Father, + and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. + Amen.

And the Apostles said, "...pick out from among you... men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint..."

Subdeacon WALTER DUDYCH

moves toward Priestly ordination with the next step of ordination to the

Diaconate which will take place on the feast of the Nativity of the Mother of God, September 8th

Please keep him in your prayer as he continues this journey!

Prayer of Venerable Andrew Sheptytsky

(1865-1944) for Good Priests

Lord, O Lord, look down from heaven, survey and visit the vineyard which was planted by Your hand. May Your all-powerful hand be always on this people which You have loved. In every generation, Eternal God, until the end of the world, grant them holy bishops and priests, filled with Your Spirit — pastors and teachers of Your law, who would be able to keep the truth of Your holy incarnation without compromise and, with love, to teach and to guide this great people. Grant to Your clergy the grace to never fear any sacrifice, when it concerns Your glory and the good of this people. Set the hearts of Your priests on fire with a zealous spirit for the salvation of souls. Open before their eyes the wisdom of Your revelation and grant them to hold in high esteem the holiness of the task to which you called them. Bless their work and their intentions. Protect them from every evil — especially mortal sin. And unite them by Your grace, so that in love they would be one — as are you, Father, with Your Son and the Son with You. Amen.

Please pray for Deacon Jay Korban who is preparing for Priestly ordination August 15

COME REST IN MY HOUSE: Reflections On Christ's Companionship At The Conclusion of Our Earthly Journey

By the time of this publication, Fr. Edward, the Author, had been a business owner, a parent, husband of over fifty years, and an ordained priest for twenty five years. This is a collection of some of the funeral homilies he shared with families grieving the loss of an elder family member, encouraging them to find hope, peace and joy despite their pain.
