WEEKLY PARISH BULLETIN - AND... COVID-19 PANDEMIC UPDATE - NO. 46

YEAR of SAINT JOSEPH 2021

Today Jesus enters the great city of Jerusalem. He, of course, is aware that the crowds that cheer His entry today, in a few days will shout, demanding his terrible death. As he enters Jerusalem, He weeps over the city, because He knows that not only will it soon be destroyed by the Romans, but this is the day for which Jerusalem and all God's People waited for centuries and now they will miss it! Perhaps among the fond memories is when His foster father St. Joseph gently held Him in his arms at the Presentation or when Joseph hugged Jesus when finding Him in the temple.

Guido Reni

They cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. And the crowds ... shouted, "...Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"

This Palm [aka Willow] Sunday, Let us allow ourselves to feel hope once again! Not only hope that the pandemic will end soon or that things will soon "get back to normal" (Things will probably never be the same... but if we give our hearts and souls to the Lord, then things will be more fantastic than we imagined)! No, let us have hope in our tireless prayers that we would grow in wisdom and become the saints that the Lord would have us be, and that we want to be, will actually come to fruition! As the Lord leads

Us... His Church through the dark times of Holy Week... He will also Lead us to the new eternal Life!

We want to have an inspiring and hope-filled Holy Week observance and Easter celebration! To do so we have to contend with protocols by which we can avoid risk of contracting any illness or causing anxiety for anyone.

To attend the services - you must call ahead to pre-register (204-667-8866). [You may try to just come, but you will have to wait until all pre-registered have arrived, then, if there is room, you will be able to enter]

* We are open to all visitors, of course, but we will be giving priority to 'regular' parishioners, as many have been away from their church for a long time and want to come in this Easter season.

* All covid-19 safety regulations will be applicable - masks, social distancing, no-congregating, only designated singers, sanitizing, directional movement, etc.

It's all about prayer and giving glory to God Who endured our rejection and suffered, died and rose again for the sake of our salvation, because of His amazing love for each of us! That's why we come.
