WEEKLY PARISH BULLETIN - AND... COVID-19 PANDEMIC UPDATE - NO. 58

Where was Joseph when Jesus was an adult? The last time Joseph is mentioned in the Bible is when Jesus was twelve years old. Returning from a trip to Jerusalem, Jesus became separated from His parents, who eventually found Him in the temple in the midst of the teachers. Ironically, it was at that time—when Jesus announced that He had to be about His heavenly Father's business—that all mention of his earthly father ceases (Luke 2:41-50). Because Joseph is not mentioned again, most scholars assume he died sometime before Jesus began His public ministry. By the time we get to the wedding at Cana (John 2), Joseph is conspicuously absent. We see Mary there, but no mention is made of Joseph. Perhaps a part of the reason why Jesus remained at home until He was 30 is that He had the ultimate responsibility for caring for the family. The theory that Joseph had died by the time Jesus was an adult is given further credibility by the fact that Jesus, when He was on the cross, made arrangements for His mother to be cared for by the Apostle John (John 19:26-27). Joseph must have been dead by the time of the crucifixion, or Jesus would never have committed Mary to John, if Joseph were still alive. Only a widow could have rightly been given into the care of someone outside the family.

YEAR of SAINT JOSEPH 2021

CONGRATULATIONS TO ARCHBISHOP STEFAN SOROKA WHOSE 25th ANNIVERSARY OF EPISCOPAL ORDINATION WE CELEBRATE TODAY!

His anniversary Divine Liturgy will be livestreamed from St. Anne parish today at 10:00 AM, and will also be posted on YouTube to be watched throughout this year.

МНОГАЯ ЛІТА!

We bid farewell to Fr. George (Djura) Maljik.

We got to know him in our parish as he lived for awhile at the Kildonan Horizons and soon was concelebrating the Divine Liturgy with us everyday and was even joining in the after-church coffees. He even enjoyed helping at Bingos & with Perogy-making. His funeral was held this past Friday at Saint Andrew parish church where he was pastor. At the sermon, Metropolitan Lawrence mentioned the struggles that Fr. George experienced in priestly ministry over 38 years and he also mentioned the challenges that he faced on a personal level. He concluded that Fr. George was a dedicated priest who always tried to better himself and better serve the Lord and His People. Let's remember Fr. Maljik - especially in our prayer. May he rest in peace. Вічна йому пам'ять!
