The Death of Saint Joseph

Today, albeit somewhat belated according to our "green holidays" Pentecost tradition, we are remembering and praying for people that are greatly loved and/or important to us and/or are respected by us. Their passing from this life

YEAR of SAINT JOSEPH 2021

saddens us. Yet we know by the gift of our Catholic Faith that we are not at all separated forever, but only for a period of time. The Lord has unequivocally promised resurrection and eternal life to those who are baptized into Him and who live a life of faith according to His Holy Will. By His grace we will be re-united with all those that have passed from this life before us and those that will eventually pass from this life after us when they have completed their earthly journey. This being the Year of Saint Joseph, we can turn to the Holy Family and, perhaps Mary the Mother of God in particular, to consider the mystery of the death of our loved ones. Jesus and Mary lost their spouse and foster father when Joseph died and Mary, of course, also lost her beloved Son Jesus, when He was put to death (...before her eyes. She was present at both of these deaths). According to tradition, St. Joseph, in the last eight years of his life suffered from various illnesses. Mary cared for him in those years. She prayed that the Lord would grant Joseph a peaceful death and that he would be granted a heavenly reward appropriate to his heroic and selfless caring for the Holy Family. Finally, the day before he died, St. Joseph experienced an extraordinary joy and peace and closeness to the Lord that it was all that he desired. When he knew his end was at hand he asked for a blessing and Mary asked Jesus to bless him. Jesus took Joseph into His arms and they had a brief conversation and Jesus blessed him and Joseph died in His arms. Jesus closed his foster father's eyes. He was just over sixty years old. Some saints believed that he was buried in the area of the Garden of Gethsemane. Saint Joseph, aside from being the Patron Saint of the Catholic Church, is also the "patron saint of a peaceful death"

Please remember in your prayer, call, write to our isolated parishioners...

The Ukrainian Bible Society celebrates 30 years of activity this year!

They have managed to print countless Bibles—both Old and New Testaments, as well as many commentaries, children's versions and other Bible-related materials. One of the great figures behind their success is an unassuming Ukrainian Catholic Studite monk that has dedicated the last 40+ years to translating the Bible from its original Hebrew and Greek languages into Ukrainian. He is Archimandrite Fr. Rafail Torkoniak (pictured) who lives near St. George's Cathedral in Lviv. He was born in... England, but has spent years in Rome, the United States and for the last many years—in Ukraine.

POPE FRANCIS DECLARES THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR BABAS & DIDOS AND ALL SENIORS!

Okay, its officially called for "Grandparents and the Elderly" but it is a wonderful day asking all of us to appreciate what a blessing the elderly are in our lives and in society. It is also an occasion for the elderly not to lose hope and to think that their day "has passed". No! The Pope says. The elderly, regardless of what their state of health or age may be, have great things to offer to a world so much in need of their wisdom, their experience, their kindness, and their love of life that they now appreciate like never before. And their prayer and even suffering. All graces for us!
