Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee; Octoechos Tone 4

Venerable Father Boucolus, Bishop of Smyrna

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 4: When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel* the glorious news of the resurrection* and cast off the ancestral condemnation,* they proudly told the apostles:* “Death has been plundered!* Christ our God is risen,* granting to the world great mercy.”

Troparion, Tone 1: Rejoice, full of grace, Virgin Mother of God!* From you there dawned the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God,* who enlightens those who dwell in darkness.* And you, O righteous Elder, be glad!* You received in your embrace* the Liberator of our souls,* who grants us resurrection.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 3: Let us bring sighs of sorrow to the Lord as did the Publican* and approach the Master as sinners,* for He desires salvation for everyone.* He grants forgiveness to all who repent.* For as God, the One-who-is, co-eternal with the Father, He became flesh for us.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion, Tone 1: By Your birth, You sanctified a virgin womb* and fittingly blessed the hands of Simeon.* You have come also now and saved us, O Christ our God,* give peace to Your community in time of war,* and strengthen its rulers, whom You love,* for You alone,* are the Lover of mankind.

Prokeimenon, Tone 4

How great are Your works, O Lord* You have made all things in wisdom.

verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

Epistle - 2 Timothy 3:10-15

Timothy, my son, you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia, Tone 4

verse: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

verse: You have loved justice and hated iniquity. (Psalm 44:5,8)

Gospel - Luke 18:10-14

The Lord told this parable: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.’ And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Hymn to the Mother of God

O God-bearing Virgin, hope of Christians, protect and guard and save all those who put their trust in you.

and the Irmos, Tone 3: In the law, the shadow, and the scriptures, we the faithful see a figure: every male child that opens the womb shall be sanctified to God. Therefore do we magnify the first-born Word and Son of the Father who is with-

ANNOUNCEMENTS

As this is the week between the Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee and the Sunday of the Prodigal Son, according to our liturgical prescriptions, there is no fasting or abstinence at all this week. That means you can fire up the barbecue for some steak, chicken, pork, etc.!

Catholic Imagery in Superheroes as Seen Through the Heroes of DC Comics. This a three week series of discussion of Catholic imagery in three DC Comics movies. We will meet in the Multi-Purpose Room at the Parish Centre at 7:00 pm on February 11, 18, and 25. While this event is targeted to young adults, all are welcome.

Marriage Preparation classes will start in early March. If you are interested, please call Fr. Michael.

From this day forward, all intentions for Divine Liturgy will be coordinated directly with Fr. Michael.

Remember, anyone wishing to have a home visit or Jordan home blessing from Father Michael, or know of a parishioner who would like to have a visit, please contact the parish office to book a time: 204-667-8866.

The first Sorokousty service is soon. If you would like to have your deceased family members prayed for on the All Souls Saturdays, please update your list at the parish office. The first All Souls Saturday is February 19.

Please continue to remember Ukraine in your prayers during this arduous time.

The Holy Eucharist Social Club is looking towards the future and bringing Bingo back! They plan to re-open in the new year and are looking for volunteers. Anyone interested or if you know anyone interested in volunteering Tuesday nights between 5pm and 10 pm please give Bernice a call 204-669-2068.

Parish Event Workers. Our parish is getting busy again with many inquiries and events being booked at our facilities. Please help your parish out by providing your name and contact info and willingness to work at some events. This will make scheduling of events much easier. We do need more of you so as to be able to spread out the work load. Due to government regulations, some events require workers to have current, full Covid-19 immunization status, and some events don't have this requirement. For this reason alone, your Covid-19 immunization status will be required. As before, you will be paid for your time.

Sunday of the Publican & Pharisee

“Publican” is an old-fashioned word for a tax collector. Since the Publicans in Palestine at the time of Our Lord were collecting taxes for the Roman Empire, and, at times, took an exorbitant commission for themselves, most people held them in low esteem. The Pharisees took great pride in observing every detail of the Mosaic Law to the letter, and looked down on other people who were not so punctilious about it.

In his sermon at the Papal Mass in St. Peter's Basilica in 1995, Patriarch Bartholomew of Constantinople said that along with repentance we need “humility, the queen of Christian virtues.” At the beginning of the Triodion, the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee reminds us of the crucial importance of humility. We could be tempted to think that by fasting, prayer, divine services and alms giving we shall become “better” than other people, we could be tempted to look down on other people. When God gives us a greater abundance of grace, He expects us to grow in humility. We have no call to boast of our achievements, and still less do we have any right to judge other people; God will judge us all.

Humility, however, is a very powerful virtue. If we want to accomplish great things, we should aspire to humility. To be humble does not mean to think myself worthless, or to think that I am of less value than is truly the case. Both of these are temptations, not virtues. No human being is worthless; we have been redeemed by the Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. We have each a unique vocation from God. Trying to be “humble” by pretending to think myself of lesser value than I really consider myself to be, is nothing more than pride.

Genuine humility is freedom from illusion. The devil seeks to delude us, to deceive us. Jesus Christ seeks to bring us the Truth, to lead us into the Truth. For that, we must reject illusion, we must be humble. If we were to take pride in our Lenten observances, we would waste our time. Repentance involves liberating us from the devil’s illusions and enabling us to see reality.

For this, we ask God’s mercy. Our Ukrainian tradition in particular uses the Prayer of the Publican: “O God, be merciful to me, a sinner,” quite often. We do not take pride in our virtues; the credit belongs to God. We do not seek to excuse our faults; we ask God to forgive us and show mercy to us.

On this Sunday, one of the most important liturgical features of the Triodion appears. At Matins the priest reads one of the Resurrection Gospels, as he does every Sunday. But today, after the lesson, while the Gospel Book lies in the nave awaiting our veneration, we sing the verse, “Open to me the doors of repentance, O Giver of Life; my spirit seeks Your Holy Temple early in the morning, bearing the temple of my body all defiled. In Your compassion cleanse me by Your loving kindness and your mercy... Guide me in the paths of salvation O Theotokos!”

This plea, asking God to open the way to repentance, will not go unanswered. God opens the way. We must walk that way and go through that gate, through Christ’s Resurrection.

During the week between the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee and the Sunday of the Prodigal Son, the tradition of our Church is to have no fasting. This also may teach us humility; by not fasting during this week we should learn that fasting in itself is not meritorious. Fasting is only a part of Lent; prayer, almsgiving, and, above all, humble repentance are all far more important than fasting.
