Sunday of the Meatfare; Octoechos Tone 6

Our Venerable Father Leo, Bishop of Catania

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 6: Angelic powers were upon Your tomb* and the guards became like dead men;* Mary stood before Your tomb* seeking Your most pure body.* You captured Hades without being overcome by it.* You met the Virgin and granted life.* O Lord, risen from the dead,* glory be to You!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion, Tone 1: When You come on earth, O God, in glory,* and the universe trembles,* while the river of fire flows before the seat of judgement,* and the books are opened and all secrets disclosed,* then deliver me from the unquenchable fire,* and count me worthy to stand at Your right hand,* O Judge who are most just.

Prokeimenon, Tone 3

Great is our Lord and great is His strength;* and of His knowledge there is no end.

verse: Praise the Lord, for a psalm is good; may praise be sweet to Him.

Epistle - 1 Corinthians 8:8-9:2

Brothers and Sisters, food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse. But beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols? And because of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? But when you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble. Am I not an apostle? Am

I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Alleluia, Tone 8

verse: Come, let us rejoice in the Lord; let us acclaim God our Saviour.

verse: Let us come before His face with praise, and acclaim Him in psalms.

Gospel - Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord said, "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.' Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.' Then He will also say to those on the left hand, 'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was hungry and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink; I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.' Then they also will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?' Then He will answer them, saying, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.' And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest. (Psalm 148:1)* Rejoice in the Lord, O you just;* praise befits the righteous.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia. (Psalm 32:1)

Sunday of Meatfare: the Last Judgment

As its name indicates, this is traditionally the final day for eating meat until Pascha. This additional week of abstinence from meat comes from the Monastery of Saint Sabbas, near Jerusalem. The monks are thought to have introduced the practice in expiation for a sin of the Emperor Heraclius when he recaptured Jerusalem from the Persians. But this is a historical matter of no particular importance, and is not even mentioned in the Triodion.

The real theme of this Sunday is the Last Judgment, which we read about in the Gospel at the Divine Liturgy (Mt 25:31-46).

Fasting is a discipline, an aid to repentance. Repentance itself is the object of the exercise. Just before the Great Doxology on this Sunday we sing "If you fast, do not deceive your neighbour! If you abstain from food, do not judge others!"

Even Lent has its temptations: we may be tempted to believe that our religious practice of Lent somehow entitles us to look down on others, or somehow excuses us from serving others. Just the opposite is true. And this "Sunday of the Last Judgment" should keep before our eyes, all through Lent, the primary importance of caring for the needs of others, of recognizing in those in need, Christ Himself. Lent should teach us humility; God forbid that Lent would become an occasion of pride!

The week following this Sunday, the last week before Lent itself, has some interesting features. Wednesday and Friday are "aliturghical days," which means that no celebration of the Divine Liturgy is foreseen by the calendar, and there are no readings from the Scripture for the Divine Liturgy. Saturday, the day before Forgiveness Sunday, is kept in honour of the monastic saints, the Holy Ascetics, because particularly during Lent we strive to follow their good example.

In Oriental Lumen, Pope John Paul II devotes much attention to our tradition of monasticism, (see Oriental Lumen, 9-10, 12-15) which the Holy Father calls "a reference point for all the baptized, according to the gifts offered to each by the Lord" (Oriental Lumen, 9). I should like to encourage all the clergy and faithful of the eparchy to read Oriental Lumen during Lent. It is the monastics who have given us much of our Lenten practice, and this Saturday just before Lent is a moment when we offer the monastic saints our thanks for all that they have done, for all that they mean to the Church. This Saturday also is a reminder to our contemporary monastics, including even those who serve in our own diocese, that they are the heirs and custodians of a most glorious spiritual heritage which the Church expects them to cultivate and share.

This Saturday, finally, reminds us of Pope John Paul II's exhortation:

"With regard to monasticism, in consideration of its importance in Eastern Christianity, we would like it to flourish once more in the Eastern Catholic Churches, and that support be given to all those who feel called to work for its revitalization. In fact, in the East an intrinsic link exists between liturgical prayer, spiritual tradition and monastic life. For this reason precisely, a well-trained and motivated renewal of monastic life could mean true ecclesial fruitfulness for them as well. Nor should it be thought that this would diminish the effectiveness of the pastoral ministry which in fact will be strengthened by such a vigorous spirituality, and thus will find once more its ideal place. This hope also concerns the territories of the Eastern diaspora, where the presence of Eastern monasteries would give greater stability to the Eastern Churches in those countries, and would make a valuable contribution to the religious life of Western Christians" (Oriental Lumen, 27).

In response to this teaching of the Holy Father, we should pray for an abundance of monastic vocations, and for the strong, authentic monastic witness which Oriental Lumen describes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Catholic Imagery in Superheroes as Seen Through the Heroes of DC Comics. This a three week series of discussion of Catholic imagery in three DC Comics movies. We will meet in the Multi-Purpose Room at the Parish Centre at 6:00 pm on February 25. While this event is targeted to young adults, all are welcome.

We will have a few weddings here this coming summer. Fr. Michael is looking for a few married couples that will commit to prayer for these engaged couples as they prepare for marriage in the Lord. If you would like to take up this effort, please call Fr. Michael at your convenience.

Please continue to remember Ukraine in your prayers during this arduous time.

Once again our beautiful church will be participating in this year's Annual Doors Open, which will be held Saturday, May 28 and Sunday, May 29, 2022. With restrictions being lifted, we would like to go ahead and plan our Annual Parish Garage Sale and Perogy Bash to be held on Saturday, May 28, 2022. We would like to get started in the planning of both of these events. If you are interested in volunteering for this weekend, please call Father Michael or the Parish Office to leave your name. We would like to get a meeting and committee together very soon.

Donate with Interac Transfer

With the current Covid-19 restrictions, it is understandable that we are not able to get our donations into the church. Please think about using the convenient Interac transfer. You can make your donation right from home using our email address at :
