Third Sunday of the Great Fast: Veneration of the Holy Cross

Octoechos Tone 2

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 2: When You went down to death, O Life Immortal,* You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity.* When You raised the dead from the nether world,* all the powers of heaven cried out:* “O Giver of Life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

Troparion, Tone 1: Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.* Grant victory to Your faithful people against enemies,* and protect Your community by Your cross.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion, Tone 7: No longer does the flaming sword guard the gate of Eden;* the tree of the Cross has quenched its flames gloriously.* The sting of death and the victory of Hades are banished,* and You O my Saviour came and called to those in Hades: “Return again to Paradise!”

Instead of Holy God, we sing:

To Your Cross, O Master,* we bow in veneration,* and we glorify Your holy Resurrection!

Prokeimenon, Tone 6

Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

Epistle - Hebrews 4:14-5:6

Brothers and Sisters, seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. For every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. He can have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. Because of this he is required as for the people, so also for himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him: “You are My Son, today I have begotten You.” As He also says in another place: “You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

Alleluia, Tone 8

verse: Remember Your congregation which You acquired from the beginning.

verse: But God is our king before the ages; He has wrought salvation in the midst of the earth. (Psalm 73:2,12)

Gospel - Mark 8:34-9:1

The Lord said, “Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel’s will save it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.” And He said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see the kingdom of God present with power.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A reminder to all parishioners that Metropolitan Lawrence has rescinded the dispensation of participation in the services of Sundays and Feast Days that are obligatory. This dispensation was enacted at the beginning of the pandemic and was removed a few weeks ago.

The Feast of the Annunciation of the Most Holy Mother of God is this Friday, March 25. It is one of the greatest feast days of the year and is considered a holy day of obligation. The Vespers-Liturgy will be at 6:00 pm this Friday.

For those wishing to donate to Ukraine, you can do so through the Ukrainian Canadian Congress Manitoba Branch at gofundme.com and search #HelpUkraineNow, or through the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (cnewa.org/ca/campaigns/ukraine). There are direct links on the parish website. Or you can donate to our parish and earmark for Ukraine. We will forward your donation to CNEWA.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, our Annual General Meeting will be on Monday, April 25, 2022 at 7:00 pm

The Perogy Team has decided that $1 from every dozen perogies sold will go toward a humanitarian relief fund for Ukraine. Word is out and, boy, have we got orders! We need your help—really, we need your help! Potato peelers are needed on Wednesday mornings, and perogy pinchers are needed on Thursday mornings. Can you offer some time to ensure that we have the best perogies in Winnipeg, help raise funds for Ukraine by doing so, and enjoy the company of fellow parishioners? No registration is need—just show up! For those ordering perogies, the Perogy Hotline is 204-667-6304.

There will be a Psyanky workshop on Saturday, March 26, 1-4pm in the Parish Centre. To register, please call Rosanne at 204-801-9103 or Val at 204-667-7395.

Catholic Imagery in Film continues with our next series, The Lord of the

The Seniors Club continues to meet every Wednesday afternoon in the Parish Centre. All are welcome!

Once again our beautiful church will be participating in this year's Annual Doors Open, which will be held May 28-29, 2022. With restrictions being lifted, we would like to go ahead and plan our Annual Parish Thrift Sale and Perogy Bash to be held on Saturday, May 28, 2022. We would like to get started in the planning of both of these events. If you are interested in volunteering for this weekend, please call Father Michael or the Parish Office to leave your name. We would like to get a meeting and committee together very soon.

Please remember in your prayers our isolated parishioners!

Annunciation of Our Most Holy Lady, the Mother of God and Ever-Virgin Mary

When the All-holy Virgin had completed the fourteenth year after her birth and was entering her fifteenth year, after having spent eleven years of living and serving in the Temple of Jerusalem, the priests informed her that, according to the Law, she could not remain in the Temple but was required to be betrothed and enter into marriage. To the great surprise of the priests, the All-holy Virgin answered that she had dedicated her life to God and that she desired to remain a virgin until death, not wanting to enter into marriage with anyone! Then according to God's providence and inspiration, Zacharias, the high priest and father of the Forerunner, in agreement with the other priests, gathered twelve unmarried men from the tribe of David, so that they might entrust the Virgin Mary to one of them to preserve her virginity and care for her. She was entrusted to Joseph of Nazareth, who was her kinsman. In the house of Joseph, the All-holy Virgin continued to live as she did in the Temple of Solomon, occupying her time in the reading of sacred Scripture, in prayer, in godly thoughts, in fasting, and in handiwork. She rarely went anywhere outside the house and was uninterested in worldly matters and events. She spoke very little to anyone, if at all, and never without special need. She most often associated with Joseph's two daughters. When the fullness of time had come, as prophesied by Daniel the Prophet, and when God was pleased to fulfill His promise to the banished Adam and to the prophets, the great Archangel Gabriel appeared in the chamber of the All-holy Virgin. This occurred, as some Church writers have related, precisely at the same moment that she held open the book of the Prophet Isaiah and was contemplating his great prophecy: Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and bear a son! (Isaiah 7:14). Gabriel appeared in all of his angelic brightness and saluted her: Rejoice, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee! (Luke 1:28), and the rest, as it is written in the Gospel of the blessed Luke. With this angelic annunciation and the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Virgin, the salvation of mankind and the restoration of all creation began. The history of the New Testament was opened by the words of the Archangel Gabriel: Rejoice, thou that art highly favored. This shows that the New Testament signified joy to mankind and to all created things. Therefore the Annunciation is considered not only a great feast but also a joyful feast.

Most Holy Theotokos, save us!

Consecration of Ukraine and Russia to the Mother of God

Pope Francis will consecrate the nations of Ukraine and Russia to the Mother of God (under the Latin title of the Immaculate Heart of Mary) on the feast of the Annunciation of the Mother of God, Friday, March 25, 2022. Patriarch Sviatoslav welcomes such an event for which the people of Ukraine have hoped since Russia renewed its aggression toward Ukraine in 2014. Metropolitan Lawrence is asking all parishes to mark this day as a special day of prayer and to assemble around the time that His Holiness will make this consecration (around 11:00 am our time). Our parish will have a Moleben at that time, and will have special petitions at the Divine Liturgy later in the day. Metropolitan Lawrence will also lead a special service the same day at 10:00 am at Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, 965 Boyd Avenue, after which everyone will be invited to join in the Rome and Fatima events via livestream.

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.
