Second Sunday after Pentecost. Octoechos Tone 1

Holy Apostles Bartholomew and Barnabas

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 1: Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans,* and soldiers guarded Your most pure body,* You arose, O Saviour, on the third day,* and gave life to the world.* And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life:* Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ!* Glory to Your kingdom!* Glory to Your saving plan,* O only Lover of mankind.

Troparion, Tone 1: Receiving a fiery tongue in the power of the Spirit, to all you preached the Word that has come in the flesh.* For its sake, O Bartholomew, you were beheaded* and Barnabas endured stoning.* Together you form an adornment* for the choir of apostles.* And so we feast your memorial* and ask you to pray Christ God* to grant us forgiveness of sins.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 4: You have appeared to the world like a brilliant sun,* O apostle Bartholomew.* With the rays of your teaching and awesome miracles* you lead to the Light all who honour you.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion, Tone 1: You arose in glory from the tomb* and with Yourself you raised the world.* All humanity acclaims

You as God,* and death has vanished.* Adam exults, O Master,* and Eve, redeemed now from bondage, cries out for joy:* “You are the One, O Christ, Who offer resurrection to all.”

Prokeimenon, Tone 1

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

verse: Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous. (Psalm 32:22,1)

Prokeimenon, Tone 8

Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth, and their word unto the ends of the world.

Epistle - Rm 2:10-16; Acts 11:19-30

Brothers and Sisters, there will glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For there is no partiality with God. For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

In those days, those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul. And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Alleluia, Tone 1

verse: God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.

verse: Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever. (Psalm 17:48,51) verse: The heavens shall confess our wonders, O Lord, and Your truth in the church of the saints. (Psalm 88:6)

Gospel - Mt 4:18-23; Lk 10:16-21

At that time, Jesus, Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him. Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him. And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.

The Lord said to His disciples, "He who hears you hears Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me." Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name." And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven." In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight."

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest (Psalm 148:1).* Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth,* and their word unto the ends of the world (Psalm 18:5).* Alleluia, alleluia,*

The Cause for the Canonization of Blessed Sister Josaphata, foundress of the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate, is presently being processed at the Vatican for her to be declared a Saint. She was declared Blessed on June 27, 2001, by Pope St. John Paul II in Ukraine, and possible miracles through her intercession are currently being studied in Rome. Now, we need your help: PRAY & REPORT.

PRAY. Your prayers are more powerful than perhaps you imagine! They can take two forms: to her and for her. Pray to Sister Josaphata that she may intercede for you and others in times of need, especially in cases of serious illness. Pray for Sister Josaphata's cause for sainthood, that it may continue to move forward with favourable reports. Remember that prayers to and for Blessed Sister Josaphata are really prayers asking God to act through her and on behalf of her.

REPORT. After asking Blessed Sister Josaphata to intercede for a particular intention, it is important to report any favours received, to let the SSMI here in Winnipeg know when your prayers have been answered. You are encouraged to report any and every favour, big or small, so we can appreciate better the spiritual activity of Blessed Sister Josaphata. Medical and physical healings are especially important to report since they are most likely to be judged miraculous in accordance with Vatican guidelines. Call Sister Jean, SSMI, vice-postulator at 204-638-5985 or email blessedjosaphata@outlook.com.

The cause of Blessed Sister Josaphata is an opportunity for each one of us to find inspiration in her example of life and to seek her intercession and draw closer to God. Blessed Sister Josaphata's cause is a summons to all of us to remember that we, like her, were baptized into Christ and now, inspired by her example and through her intercession, we can also attain to heroic virtue. Through the prayers and example of Sister Josaphata may we ever more and more love the Lord with our whole heart and our neighbour as ourselves.

Please remember in your prayers our parishioners!

Lavinia Aftanas, Jane Budzen, Sophie Demjanew, Sophie Gierys, Jennie Huchko, Jack Kisil, Nadia Kowal, Olga Kowalski, Stephanie Kupskay, Milly Manitowich, Antonia Prokopowich, Jean Rotinsky, Anna Senyk, Jean Stewart, Fr. Victor Yakowchuk.
