The Holy Wonderworker and Equal-to-the-Apostles Abercius.

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 4: When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel* the glorious news of the resurrection* and cast off the ancestral condemnation,* they proudly told the apostles:* “Death has been plundered! * Christ our God is risen,* granting to the world great mercy.”

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 4: My Saviour and Deliverer from the grave* as God raised out of bondage the children of the earth* and shattered the gates of Hades;* and as Master, He rose on the third day.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion, Tone 4: By your birth, O immaculate one,* Joachim and Anna were freed from the reproach of childlessness,* and Adam and Eve* from the corruption of death.* And your people, redeemed from the guilt of their sins,* celebrate as they cry out to you:* “The barren one gives birth to the Mother of God* and nourisher of our life.”

Prokeimenon, Tone 4

How great are Your works, O Lord* You have made all things in wisdom.

verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great. (Psalm 103:24,1)

Epistle - Galatians 2:16-20

Brothers and Sisters, knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Alleluia, Tone 4

verse: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

verse: You have loved justice and hated iniquity. (Psalm 44:5,8)

Gospel - Luke 8:5-15

The Lord told this parable: "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?" And He said, "To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that 'Seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.' Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away. Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with patience."

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest (Psalm 148:1). * Alleluia, alleluia, * alleluia.

It is good and most useful to have communion every day and to partake of the Body and Blood of Christ, for Christ Himself says clearly: "Whoso eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, has eternal life" (John 6:54). For who can doubt that to participate constantly in life, means to have the most abundant life.

OH MAN ... THIS SACKCLOTH TOTALLY FIT ME THE LAST TIME I WORE IT

Pope Francis proclaims October 27 the Day of Penance and Prayer for Peace and calls to remember Ukraine

UGCC | October 18, 2023

In his customary conclusion to Wednesday's meeting with pilgrims, Pope Francis, after calling for remembrance of the suffering in Ukraine, turned his attention to the Holy Land and all regions wounded by war. He declared the last Friday of October as a Day of Prayer and Fasting for the entire world, extending an invitation to people of different faiths and religions to unite in this endeavor.

"Brothers and sisters, please continue to pray for peace and remember the ongoing suffering in Ukraine; though it may not be in the headlines, the tragedy persists," Pope Francis concluded his general audience on Wednesday, October 18, 2023, with these words before leading the Lord's Prayer and delivering the blessing. For the past 600 days, since the Angelus prayer on February 27, 2022, the Holy Father has consistently drawn attention to Ukraine's tragedy as a victim of armed aggression, ensuring it doesn't fade into the background amidst other events.

Other equally tragic events weigh heavily on the Pope's heart. Before addressing the Italian-speaking pilgrims, he directed his thoughts towards Palestine and Israel, urging an end to conflicts worldwide and proclaiming a special Day of Prayer and Fasting. "Today, dear brothers and sisters, my thoughts go to Palestine and Israel. The death toll is rising, and the situation in Gaza is dire. Every effort must be made to prevent a humanitarian catastrophe. The potential escalation of the conflict is deeply concerning, given the numerous military conflicts occurring worldwide." He further called for a cessation of weapons and for the pleas for peace from ordinary people and children to be heard. He emphasized: "War, my brothers and sisters, does not resolve a problem; it only brings death and destruction, fosters hatred, and multiplies vengeance. War obliterates the future. I implore believers to stand on one side in this conflict — the side of peace. However, not with mere words, but with prayer and wholehearted dedication."

In this perspective, the Pope said that he has decided to proclaim Friday, October 27, a Day of Fasting, Prayer, and Penance, to which he invites "brothers and sisters of the various Christian denominations and those of other religions who hold the matter of world peace at heart." "That evening at 18:00, we will hold an hour of prayer in St. Peter's Cathedral in the spirit of repentance, asking for peace for our days, for peace in this world. I ask all local churches to join by preparing similar initiatives engaging the people of God," the Bishop of Rome called.
